| Description and Purpose: The CS3361 datasheet mistakenly refers to a "Stator Power Up" feature which actually does not exist for this device. The error was introduced in 2002 during a mass conversion of datasheets because this device is very similar to another device that does have this feature. The datasheet is being updated to remove references to this feature. Also, ordering information for the pb-free version is being added at the same time. For updated datasheet please see the ON Semiconductor website. Link to CS3361 Datasheet | | |
